Kitchen Door

1300 1st Street Suite 272, Napa

After more than a decade at Oxbow Public Market, Kitchen Door has settled into its new space just a few blocks away in the First Street Napa retail development. Fan favorites including the cream of mushroom soup and Korean short ribs share the menu with plenty of new dishes from around the world. We recommend grabbing a seat on the outdoor patio; the firepit keeps it cozy even on cool wine country nights. kitchendoornapa.com
